Walking with Walter

It's hard to believe that the last time we were together was on March 15. Since then, I've been able to talk with most of you via the telephone. That, in and of itself, has been interesting for me. It has given me an opportunity just to check on you all and to let you know that I'm thinking of you. I'm sure that I've missed some of you but at this point, I have called all of our regular attenders.

I want to say thank you for all of you who have responded and said how much you appreciate the messages that have been put on YouTube and on our website. It is so nice to hear what you all think of what we're trying to do in this time of separation. Some of you have watched the worship service on Sunday mornings just as if you are here at church. That's what Ellen, Candy and I have been doing. That way, it feels like we are able to be together at least.

As I write this, we do not know exactly when we will have the church opened again. But, in the meantime, we will continue to record our messages for you all. I do miss seeing your smiling faces, hearing your laughter, especially when I goof up, but I make believe that you are there with me.

Even though we are not together does not mean that you're forgotten. My greatest joy in life, at this time, is being a part of this wonderful congregation. You all have been so supportive and loving even during this difficult time.

I pray that all of you will remain safe and do like you're supposed to. Thankfully, we don't have any of our church members who have contracted the coronavirus. Some of our church members have had family members that have come down with it, but so far, none of our members have.

I give praise to the Lord for protecting us and watching over us. And my prayer is that God will continue to show His kindness to us. As the priestly Benediction says, "The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make his face shine upon you and be gracious to you; the Lord turn his face toward you and give you peace." Amen!

As we go into May, 2020, things are still closed down at the church.

Walter continues to video record the Sunday worship services with the help of Don Morris, Jill Hayman-Aponte and Ellen Laseter, and Jo Ann records beautiful music for us to enjoy.

The comments in favor of what they are accomplishing are over-whelming and very complimentary. Word has spread about his sermons online, and he is reaching so many more than just our congregation. We hope you are able to view his videos, enjoy the bulletins and are comforted and encouraged during this difficult time.

We are praying for the day when we can meet here at Weirsdale Presbyterian Church as a family again.

I still have a few These Days Devotionals left if you would like one.

And finally, thank you for ALL of your kind emails.

Until we can meet together again, God Bless you all. I miss you.

Linda

SENIORS GROUP

After discussion, it has been decided that the Seniors Group will not meet in May even if the quarantine has been lifted and the restaurants are open.

Tuesday Time Out has been cancelled until further notice.

FOR THOSE OF YOU WHO HAVE NO INTERNET ACCESS

There are a few of you who are not able to see the on-line worship services that Walter is videoing each week because you do not have access to the internet.

Walter makes notes of his sermons, and if you would like a copy of his notes, please call the office and leave a message. Tell me whether you are here in Florida or at your summer location, and at the end of the month, I will mail you a copy of each week's sermons.
